

Southern Tier Blues by Tim Kasser

Southern Tier Blues presents fresh takes on 10 well-known songs, spanning folk, R&B, rock, chorale, and country traditions. A variety of talented singers and musicians from western New York appear on the album, playing everything from electric guitar and bass to fiddle and mandolin, clarinet to harmonica, and synth to crowbar. The songs are by turns sad, funny, despairing, joyful, and angry. Southern Tier Blues was attentively produced by Steve McNally at Bearland Recording Studio in Cohocton, NY.

Track List:

1. I Heard it through the Grapevine (4:35)
2. Trouble in Mind (2:41)
3. Frankie & Johnny (2:19)
4. Key to the Highway (2:10)
5. Bourgeois Blues (2:17)
6. Hoochie Coochie Man (6:16)
7. Boogie Chillun' (4:40)
8. Cocaine Blues (3:50)
9. The Lost Soul (2:33)
10. Bad Moon Rising (2:46)

Tim Kasser has played the piano for 40 years and sung the blues for the past 20 years. He is a former psychology professor, author, and activist whose work focused on the ills of consumer capitalism. Tim lives in the woods of southwestern New York state with his wife and assorted animals, including a donkey named Oliver. He can be contacted at tim@timkasser.org.